Applicant's amendment and response received on 10/10/06 have been entered and forwarded to the examiner on 3/9/07. No claims have been canceled and new claims 19-35 have been added. Claims 1-35 are now pending in this application. Of these, claims 1-9 and 16-18 have been withdrawn, as being drawn to subject matter non-elected without traverse.

While new claims 19-35 are drawn to the elected invention of composition comprising an antigen presenting cell, the newly added claims contain new limitations regarding specific species of tumor antigens which have necessitated the following additional requirement for election of species. Please note that MPEP 808.01(a) states; "If applicant presents species claims to more than one patentably distinct species of the invention after an Office action on only generic claims, with no restriction requirement, the Office may require the applicant to elect a single species for examination". Claims 10-15 examined on the merits in the previous office action were drawn to the genus of tumor antigens and did not recite any specific species. New claims 21-22 and 28 now recite specific species of tumor antigens. As such the following requirement for election of species applies.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of tumor antigens:

- a) TERT
- b) TRP-2.

The species are independent or distinct because each tumor antigen is a distinct protein with materially different physical, chemical, and functional properties which is further encoded by unrelated mRNA sequences. Further, mRNA encoding each tumor antigen is expressed and/or derived from different types of tumor cells. As such, the search for each species is not coextensive and it would place an undue burden on the examiner in this stage of the prosecution to search and examine the species together.

Art Unit: 1633

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 10-15, 19-20, 23-27, and 29-35 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
